Water three feet five inches in the canal and fall.
The M. J. Anderson is the mailboat for Cincinnati to-day, and the Gen. Russell to-morrow.

The J. T. McCombs has a bill at a clock to evening.

The J. T. McCombs takes the place of the Little John for Henderson this afternoon and the afternoon.

The Rob Roy went up to Madison to-day.

The J. T. McCombs brought down eight six of gum for Ron. St. Louis.

The St. Patrick had a big trip of horses for three times. The J. T. McCombs, with his regulars for St. Louis, was tight and fast on Scullin's for the day morning. It was not thought by any of our best men that the J. T. McCombs could do it. The
at the time the horses were placed upon the many fees to express themselves.
